

Salt Lake County Commission Youth (COY) Eighth Annual Community Awards

The Salt Lake County Commission on Youth (COY) affirms the fundamental value of children and its responsibility for their well-being. We seek to promote prevention programs that emphasize and strengthen these qualities through healthy and constructive lifestyles.

COY invites your nominations of people or groups who have achieved excellence in their work with children and/or youth in the areas of prevention, guidance and advocacy. Awards will be given to an organization, business or group; an adult individual, and a youth individual or small youth group.

Nomination Deadline: April 22, 2009

Your Name: _____

Name of Nominee or Group: _____

How can the individual or group be contacted:

Address: _____ Phone No: _____

If a group, who is the contact person or sponsor? _____

Describe details of the work done by this individual or group:

How did you become aware of the work?

Describe how this work contributes to the COY Philosophy Statement regarding guidance, prevention, advocacy:

What do you think makes this person or group stand out and deserving of the COY Award?

How would you assess the level of commitment? How long has the work been going on?

Any additional information that might be helpful in the consideration of this nominee? Feel free to include attachments.

*Please return nomination form and any attachments by April 22, 2009

Address to: Commission on Youth
ATTN: COY Awards
1 77 West Price Avenue
Salt Lake City, Utah 84115-4345

Or fax to: 269-7550

For questions, please contact: Janet Fraser
269-7502